

Autumn has burst onto the scene, and while our beloved MGs may soon find themselves parked more often due to the chill of New England's weather, I have the perfect antidote for those cozy nights in! Dive into a thrilling series of mystery novels set in early 19th-century England that will keep you on the edge of your seat.

Meet Detective Maisie Dobbs, the captivating protagonist created by Jacqueline Winspear. Set against the backdrop of 1920s Britain—a time of profound change and resilience following World War I—Maisie's journey from a servant girl to a sharp-witted investigator is nothing short of inspiring. This era is rich with contrasts, blending despair with hope as England rebuilds itself.

Maisie's adventures are not just about solving mysteries; they also feature her stunning crimson MG 14/40 two-seater, which takes her racing through the picturesque landscapes of southern England. The book is sprinkled with delightful details about her car, including an intricate five-step process for starting it—perfect for all MG enthusiasts!

With 18 books in the series and the latest release in 2024, reading them in order is a delightful way to immerse yourself in this world. Each story is a quick read yet brimming with English tradition and culture. Here's how to embark on this riveting journey:

1. Maisie Dobbs
2. Birds of a Feather
3. Pardonable Lies
4. Messenger of Truth
5. Incomplete Revenge
6. Among the Mad
7. The Mapping of Love and Death
8. A Lesson in Secrets
9. Elegy for Eddie
10. Leaving Everything Most Loved
11. A Dangerous Place
12. Journey to Munich
13. In this Grave Hour
14. To Die But Once
15. The American Agent
16. The Consequences of Fear
17. A Sunlit Weapon
18. The Comfort of Ghosts (2024)

So, as the leaves turn and the air grows crisp, grab your favorite blanket, settle into your reading nook, and let Maisie Dobbs whisk you away on thrilling adventures that will warm your heart during those chilly autumn evenings!

